An interactive online brochure, Flashbooks are the most dynamic way to engage your audience, display your work or tell your story.

They come packed with a range of features you'll find both impressive and practical, allowing you to put together presentations to replace newsletters, portfolios, or even company reports.

Navigation is simple - by clicking and dragging the corner of the page you can browse with ease - and by incorporating dynamic features like 3D rotations, interactive maps, animated text and images or even video and you will be on your way to bringing an ordinary online presentation to life.
